GREAT Very Conservative Efficient Frontier Portfolio

Portfolio Factsheet

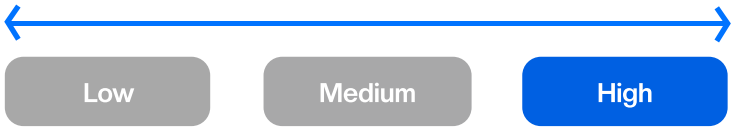

The GREAT Very Conservative Efficient Frontier Portfolio provides passive exposure to diversified global asset classes through publicly listed exchange-traded funds structured within a stability-oriented allocation framework. The portfolio is designed to prioritize capital preservation and portfolio stability while maintaining diversified exposure across fixed income, equities, and complementary asset classes.
Constituent inclusion is based on predefined eligibility criteria assessing asset class diversification benefits, liquidity, cost efficiency, and investability rather than discretionary security selection. The portfolio is intended for investors seeking long-term capital preservation and income generation through a transparent, systematic, and institutionally structured portfolio framework informed by efficient frontier allocation principles.

Thematic Exposure Framework

The portfolio represents multiple segments of the global multi-asset investment ecosystem, including:

- Investment-grade fixed income markets
- Large-cap U.S. equity markets
- Precious metals and inflation-sensitive assets
- Broad commodity markets
- Real estate investment trusts and property infrastructure

Asset eligibility and allocations are reviewed through the monthly rebalancing process to ensure continued alignment with the portfolio's efficient frontier–based allocation framework.

Portfolio Governance & Review Process

Portfolio composition is reviewed and rebalanced monthly under a predefined governance framework. Reviews are conducted to:

- Maintain alignment with the efficient frontier allocation framework
- Confirm asset class diversification and stability objectives
- Assess liquidity and market accessibility
- Implement methodology-defined reconstitutions

Portfolio changes are systematic and methodology-driven. No discretionary overrides are applied.

Investor Suitability

This portfolio may be appropriate for investors who:

- Seek conservative exposure to diversified global asset classes
- Have a medium- to long-term investment horizon
- Prioritize capital preservation and portfolio stability
- Prefer transparent, systematic portfolio construction
